

Valencia Spain's Wondair expands services with 36 Embraers

Wondair Launches Fractional Ownership and Jet Card Programs in Spain

Wondair on Demand Aviation, S.L.U (www.wondair.com) Valencia, Spain based executive aviation charter operator and aircraft management company announces the launch of state of the art fractional ownership, jet card and corporate shuttle programs.

The programs will launch with Wondair's current fleet of three (3) Cessna CJ 1's and one (1) Cessna Citation Ultra and will also market its thirty six (36) Embraer Phenom 100 and 300's on order, with deliveries starting in August 2009.

The programs will complement the current charter; block charter and aircraft management services that Wondair has successfully provided since 1990.

The new programs will incorporate leading edge 'Dynamic Fleet Allocation' management techniques and software technologies to yield minimum 'empty legs' and the lowest costs for aircraft owners and users alike.

The service area will cover the Iberian Peninsula, Southern Europe and Northern Africa with a network of aircraft bases and strategic partnerships with other service providers to custom-fit owners and users' needs. Wondair's Managing Director, Juan Luis Maronda comments: 'The idea is to expand on our charter services with optimal fractional, jet card and corporate shuttle programs. Together, these programs create an ultra efficient business model with phenomenal price-quality relations for all stakeholders and clients. Jetforyou will market and Wondair will operate in Europe an innovative product around a single aircraft fleet and ideal service area. The programs enjoy the experience of over 20 years of fractional and jet card operations both in the USA and Europe. In addition they will be deployed with a sophisticated fleet, safety and flight operations management tools and extremely seasoned flight and ground professionals.

The programs will be marketed by Wondair's commercial sales and marketing arm jetforyou (www.jetforyou.com).
